New York, May 2.—Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion, may face his conqueror. Jack Dempsey, in the ring again next fall. Negotiations for such a sent to be held in Rickard arena, Jersey City, on or about Labor day, are progressing favorably and a definite signing of articles is likely when Dempsey relarns to this country about the end of the month, it was learned today.

Willard has been angling for a return best with Dempsey for some months and the contest appeared almost clinched several times, but some untoward angle prevented the completion of the plans. Tex Rickard, who promoted the contest in Toledo in 1919, when Willard was so unmercifully rounded by Dempsey that he would not respond to the bell for the fourth round, has been in receipt of several telegrams from Willard recently repassing a chance to regain the title.

The American light-heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney, Greenwich Village idol, who holds the title, and Harry Greb. Pitts-burgh contender, which was scheduled for Madison Square Garden on the night of May 26, has been advanced to May 23. The contest is slated for fifteen rounds. Frank Flournoy, Garden matchmaker, yesterday announced the change in date after conferring with Frank Bagley. Tunney's manager, and Georgee Engel, manager of Greb. The reason for the change Flournoy said, is to afford additional time in which to prepare the Garden for its swimming season.
